

The Daily Gazetteer:

SATURDAY, APRIL 5. 1740.

NO. 1496

N: 1494.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

St. Croix in Barbary, January 16.

THE Happiness and Duration of a Reign depends upon the Love and Loyalty of the People. King Muley Abdallah has wisely made that his Maxim to attain to the Sovereign Power, and to secure the Crown to himself against the Intrigues of his Brother Muley Hamet Lariba (whose Fate Nobody knows, nor whether he be living or dead) as well as against those of Muley-Muffadi, who is posted in the Neighbourhood of Tafil, where his Treasure being all spent, the Blacks who follow'd him for nothing but his Money, have entirely abandon'd him; and this numerous Body is come to Mequinez, to proclaim Muley Abdallah King of Morocco. This Prince has so much of the Love and Esteem of the People for his Steadiness, as well as other amiable Qualities, that he bids fair to be peaceable Possessor of the Throne, so far as the other Competitors are weary, and destitute of Succours; besides that the Army of the Blacks is almost come to nothing by the Continuance of the Civil Wars, which have cost more Men than can be express'd. But at present we here enjoy a profound Peace, and Trade flourishes more than ever: And the Harvest in March next will be very plentiful in Corn and other Fruits, by reason of the kind refreshing Rains that fell in November and December last.

Madrid, March 14. On the 7th as the French Ambassador the Count de la Marck was dispatching his Courier away, he was taken with a Tremor of the Nerves, and he faulter'd in his Speech for a Day or two after, which considering his great Age was no good Sign. This Morning he took an Emetick, which has had a good Effect, and he is somewhat better. His Excellency has fatigued himself so much for several Weeks past, that his Disorder is ascrib'd to that Cause. The (late) Duke of Ormond, who has been impatiently expected here this Fortnight, writes Word, that he is detain'd in a Village near Saragossa by Floods. Upon the Arrival of News this Morning, that the First Queen Dowager of Spain was dead at Guadalaxara, a Secretary of State set out by Order of the Court, to clap a Seal upon all her Effects; and this Afternoon Black Cloth was sent to hang the Apartments of Guadalaxara as well as for the Escurial.

Vienna, March 23. Besides the late Conferences in the Privy Council in Presence of the Emperor, there have been other extraordinary ones for some time past among his Ministers at Court, and at the House of the Great Chancellor the Count de Sintzendorf, not only upon Affairs in general, but upon the War between Spain and England in particular. The Emperor declar'd indeed at the Beginning of the War, that he would have no Hand in it; but 'tis very well known that this Declaration was only conditional, and that if France does not adhere to her Declaration, that she would observe an exact Neutrality, his Imperial Majesty will not be long before he declares in favour of Great Britain: And indeed it is but too much apprehended at Court that they shall soon be oblig'd to take this Step; for the Reduction of the Forces so much talk'd of is entirely put off; and 'tis observ'd, that the March of the Regiments design'd for the Netherlands and the Empire is so far hasten'd, that their very Rout is settled, and the Places where they are to perform Quarentain; and we hear that the Commissary General of War has receiv'd Orders to repair to Italy, to visit the Magazines there and form new ones.

Paris, April 3. N. S. Orders are issued to send 8 or 10 more Battalions to Corsica, which we are told is owing to Advice which the Court has receiv'd that the Baron de Neuhoff had dangerous Intrigues with the Court of Great Britain.

One Magdalen Pefcher dy'd in the Diocese of Bayeux, the 26th of January last, aged 110; and on the 21st an old Maid of 107 was interr'd in the Innocents Church-yard.

Constantinople, Feb 28. An Express from Egypt has brought Advice of great Disorders that have happen'd at Cairo threatening a general Revolution; upon which the Grand Signior has sent a Minister thither with proper Full powers and Instructions, besides Ammunition, and Orders for the Troops nearest at hand to advance that Way. The new Ambassador arriv'd here from Persia is mightily caref'd, tho' he has not yet open'd his Commission, because he has assur'd the Ministers of the Divan that his Master desires nothing more than to live in Amity with the Porte.

Hamburg, April 5. N. S. Upon Advice that the Peasants of Danish Holstena have movin'd, the Governors of Itzehoe, Rendsbourg and Gluckstadt have receiv'd Orders to detach some Troops from their Garrisons, with some Cannon, to reduce them to Reason. The Cause of this Revolt is not yet known.

Petersburgh, March 21. N. S. The Czarina has made the General Leventahl Governor of Easthonia, in the Room of the General Count Douglas, who has resign'd. General Keith is to command in the Ukraine; the General Charles Biron in Moscow and the neighbouring Provinces; the General Bismarck in Livonia; the General Leventahl in Easthonia; and the General Goltz in Ingermania, Carelia, and the Russian Finland. M. de Romanow, General in Chief, is appointed her Ambassador to Constantinople, and is to be attended thither by M. Cagnoni, who sign'd the late Treaty. The Differences between this Court and Sweden seem to grow wider.

This Court has sent Orders to Capt. Spanberg, who has discovered 34 Islands in the North Sea, to repair thither with all Speed. This Captain has been for several Years upon the Coasts of Siberia, to seek a Passage for establishing a direct Navigation with Japan and China: He has been furnish'd with Vessels necessary for his Undertaking, together with Dutch Pilots and experienc'd Sailors. Besides what has been mention'd heretofore of the Discovery he has made, he has wrote the following Particulars to some of his Acquaintance here: "I spent all the Month of August last in cruising in the Sea of Great Tartary. Among the Islands I there discover'd, there were several inhabited only by Wild Beasts. I cast Anchor at an Island which I thought the most considerable, where we landed, and met some of the Inhabitants, who both in Shape and Dress resembled Savages, and fled into the Woods as soon as they saw us, making a hideous Noise when they saw they were pursu'd. The Inhabitants of some of the neighbouring Islands I found more sociable. The Soil appears every way exceeding fruitful. The Curious will be pleas'd with the Journal I shall give of my Discoveries, which at the same Time will shew the Advantages which the Russians will reap by Trade to China and Japan."

This News is very pleasing to the Merchants of this Empire, who hope that the Discovery made by Captain Spanberg will remove all the Difficulties that hindered the direct Communication by Sea with the Chinese and Japonese.

Rome, March 26. The Cardinals de Rohan and D'Auvergne are arriv'd here; as is also the Cardinal de Colonis. The Cardinal Cibo, who was very ill, is on the mending Hand; as is also the Cardinal de Tensin, who was very ill in the Conclave with a Fever, Sciatica, &c.

Portsmouth, March 18. N. S. Admiral Haddock's Squadron returned hither the 10th instant from Gibraltar, and four of his Men of War are gone to cruise on the Coast of Majorca. We are here, in some Measure, Eye-witnesses of all the Preparations which are making by the Spaniards to besiege us; but this Place is in a Condition to make a long and vigorous Defence; the Harbour being secured by Admiral Haddock's Squadron, and the Town being well-guarded on the Land-side with several Forts. The Garrison consists of 3000 Men, of which there are very few sick; and we have no Deserters: On the contrary, some of the Enemy come over to us every now and then, who inform us of their Situation, and say that only Half of the Troops are arriv'd at Majorca, which the Spaniards propose to send thither.

Madrid, March 21. N. S. Corn begins again to be so dear in this Kingdom, that we dread the bad Consequences, by reason of the Difficulty of receiving any from foreign Countries. Several of the Domesticks of the late Duke of Ormond are arriv'd here, and he is expected every Hour.

Vienna, March 30. N. S. The foreign Ministers who reside at Constantinople write Word, that tho' it is excessive cold Weather, and much Snow has fallen, the Plague has broke out again with great Fury, but that the Suburbs of Pera, in which they reside, were as yet exempt.

Paris, April 5. N. S. On the 31st ult. the Earl of Walgrave the British Ambassador gave a grand Entertainment on account of the Success of Admiral Vernon at Porto Bello, at which were present several English, German, Swedish, Danish and Polish Gentlemen, who highly extoll'd the Admiral's Civility to the Inhabitants. It seems determin'd that M. De Bull, who was heretofore the King's Ambassador at Vienna, shall go in the same Quality to London.

Hague, April 12. N. S. The Maltese Ambassador at the French Court has writ a Letter to a Friend of his here, wherein he contradicts the News in the English and Dutch Gazettes of the taking of several English Prizes by the Maltese Ships; says that the Authors must surely be ignorant of the fundamental Maxims of the Order of Malta, which, tho' they enjoin the Knights to make continual War against the Enemies of Christendom, yet oblige them to observe an exact Neutrality between the Christian Princes; and he desires that the Authors aforesaid may retract those Advices, and be more cautious of what they publish for the future, with regard to the Proceedings of the Maltese.

The Mail has since been found near the Earl of Arden's Park, and the Letters, which had been all open'd, were last Night brought to the Post-office.

On Wednesday last the Dwelling-house, Malt-house, and Store-houses, with Grain and Malt, belonging to Mr. Tyrrel, within a Mile of Abingdon, were burnt down by the Carelessness of a Girl attending the Fire in the Malt-house. There are near 20 other Houses burnt down, and scarce any thing sav'd.

We hear that several Informations have been made before Col. De Veil, concerning the Murder committed upon George Hawkins, late Coachman to 'Squire Pawlett, and that the Persons who are concern'd in it, are Six in Number, extremely well known and described, Five of which are fled, and One only taken, Mary Burn, committed to the Gatehouse by said Col. for further Examination; who has also issued out a great many Warrants to take the rest.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S

BALSAMICK STYPTICK.

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's late Dwelling House, now Mr. DUTTON's in Salisbury Court, Fleet-street.

THIS Medicine restrains in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all dangerous Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoides or Menes; bloody Urine or Stools, bleeding of large Wounds, &c. (if used according to the plain Directions given with it) as will appear by the Certificates of several Eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians, a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, at Home or Abroad, i. e. in all Climates, therefore must be universally Useful.

The Doctor not only obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine; but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, exempting this Medicine from the Inspection of the Censors of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are liable.

N. B. Some of the Apothecaries prepare a Styptick from a Prescription of Helvetius, and use it in the Room of Dr. Eaton's; but whoever tries both, will soon be persuaded that Our's exceeds theirs in all Respects, in a most eminent Degree.
